

Learning Intentions

- Introduce you to the learning principles of iLEAP/SIIS
- Introduce you to the kind of experience you will have in the classroom in Seattle
- Whole Person Learning
 - Head (connecting to ideas, critical perspectives)
 - Heart (bringing in the self and passion for action)
 - Feet (learning from and for experience)

What do you dream to be?

How do you seek to change
society and the world?

How will you get there?

Principles of Social Innovation

#1: The Importance of Collaboration

コラボレーションの重要性

#2: The Power of Community

コミュニティの力

#3: The Ability to be Dynamic, Flexible, and to Thrive in States of Uncertainty or Ambiguity

予測不可能な状態にあっても、ダイナミックで柔軟性があり、
伸び続けることのできる能力

Principles of Social Innovation

#4: The Importance of Laughter and Fun

笑いと楽しむことの重要性

#5: Effective Communication and the Value of Plain Language

効果的コミュニケーションと簡単な言葉の大切さ

#6: Consistent Application of Critical, Reflective Thinking

一貫したクリティカル・リフレクティブシンキングの応用

Principles of Social Innovation

#7: The Power of Persistence and Patience

粘り強さと忍耐力からくるパワー

#8: Courage

勇気

#9: Fostering a Culture of Learning and Innovation

学びとイノベーションの文化を育む

#10: Challenging the Status Quo

現状への挑戦

Social Innovation in Seattle

- Whole Person Learning
 - Head: Classroom Seminars
 - Heart: Coaching and Advising
 - Feet: Internship and Site Visits

Why iLEAP for Social Innovation?

- Small "i", Big "LEAP"
 - 'i'nform
 - 'i'magine
 - 'i'nspire