Kayak Sun Moon Lake

Established in central Taiwan in 1995, National Chi Nan University is tasked with both securing the inheritance of classical Chinese culture and cultivating a new generation of global-minded professionals.

With close access to the waters and trainers of Taiwan's famed Sun-Moon Lake, NCNU is home to collegial teams competing in rowing, archery, yachting, golfing, and medals from recent international sporting events.

Currently NCNU has 4 colleges, including the colleges of humanities, management, science and technology, and education. With the 20 task units comprising nearly 700 faculty members, we aim to transform NCNU into central Taiwan's foremost cradle of humanistic, insightful, and passion-driven research and education. An average of 6,500 students enroll each year to pursue degrees from a selection of 20 undergraduate, 26 postgraduate, and 15 doctoral programs.

Sister to 102 overseas and 44 Chinese academic institutes, NCNU hosts an average of 800 international students every year who comes to study from its 160 language courses. NCNU also has one of the most comprehensive programs for training talents for the Southeast Asian markets.

Local revitalization has drew a rising attention from the societal and national spectrum in Taiwan. NCNU's practices are to incorporate university social responsibility to assist with local revitalization.

➤ Professor Sun Tung-Wen
Department of Public Policy and Administration

How to value and nurture outstanding students is a question I always have in mind. Both talents and honesty count.

➤ Professor Lee Pei-jiun
Department of Electrical Engineering

When you have a really clear vision, and a great plan, and you finally maneuver your way through these obstacles, you don't feel alone.

➤ Professor Lin Ching-yao
Department of Applied Chemistry

A Foreign Language Professor who implements University's Social Responsibility in a Germany Artisans' decent approach
